Readings

Psalms 103

For where there is a will, there must necessarily be produced evidence of its maker's death,

Cong since a will goes into effect only upon death; it never has force while its maker is still alive.

This is why the first covenant too was inaugurated with blood. 19 After Moshe had proclaimed every command of the Torah to all the people

Cong he took the blood of the calves with some water and used scarlet wool and hyssop to sprinkle both the scroll itself and all the people;

And he said, "This is the blood of the covenant which God has ordained for you." 21 Likewise, he sprinkled with the blood both the Tent and all the things used in its ceremonies

Cong In fact, according to the Torah, almost everything is purified with blood; indeed, without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins.

Now this is how the copies of the heavenly things had to be purified, but the heavenly things themselves require better sacrifices than these.

Cong For the Messiah has entered a Holiest Place which is not man-made and merely a copy of the true one, but into heaven itself, in order to appear now on our behalf in the very presence of God.

Further, he did not enter heaven to offer himself over and over again, like the cohen hagadol who enters the Holiest Place year after year with blood that is not his own; 26 for then he would have had to suffer death many times from the founding of the universe on.

Cong But as it is, he has appeared once at the end of the ages in order to do away with sin through the sacrifice of himself.

Just as human beings have to die once, but after this comes judgment, 28 so also the Messiah, having been offered once to bear the sins of many,

Cong will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to deliver those who are eagerly waiting for him.

Bless Adonai, my soul! Everything in me, bless his holy name! Bless Adonai, my soul, and forget none of his benefits! He forgives all your offenses, he heals all your diseases, he redeems your life from the pit, he surrounds you with grace and compassion, he contents you with good as long as you live, so that your youth is renewed like an eagle's.

Adonai brings vindication and justice to all who are oppressed. He made his ways known to Moshe, his mighty deeds to the people of Isra'el. Adonai is merciful and compassionate, slow to anger and rich in grace. He will not always accuse, he will not keep his anger forever.

He has not treated us as our sins deserve or paid us back for our offenses, because his mercy toward those who fear him is as far above earth as heaven. He has removed our sins from us as far as the east is from the west.

Just as a father has compassion on his children, Adonai has compassion on those who fear him. For he understands how we are made, he remembers that we are dust. Yes, a human being's days are like grass, he sprouts like a flower in the countryside — but when the wind sweeps over, it's gone; and its place knows it no more.

But the mercy of Adonai on those who fear him is from eternity past to eternity future, and his righteousness extends to his children's children, provided they keep his covenant and remember to follow his precepts.

Adonai has established his throne in heaven; his kingly power rules everything. Bless Adonai, you angels of his, you mighty warriors who obey his word, who carry out his orders! Bless Adonai, all his troops, who serve him and do what he wants! Bless Adonai, all his works, in every place where he rules! Bless Adonai, my soul!
